Academically, the Cambridge curriculum and assessment schedule provide the context for which its highly-qualified teachers carefully bring out the best in each student through interaction, projects, and activities.

Students will benefit from the school's excellent library stock, state-of-the-art Smart Boards, and Gifted and Talented Programme. Its Education Service Unit, through its unique relationship with Western Australia Autistic School, gives specialised attention to students with special needs.

The English Proficiency Programme at NIS is designed to immerse students who come and learning new life skills.

Socially, students will be challenged to grow into productive, caring, and respectful citizens through directed assemblies, educational trips, and interaction with our caring and creative multi-national staff.
